Sec. 10-211. License.

Every person proposing to conduct, carry on or pursue the business of peddling, or of an itinerant merchant, or of a transient vendor, or begging or soliciting alms within the city, shall make application to the city for a license to do so. The applicant shall pay the currently required nonrefundable application fee at the time of the application, and a fee at the time the license is issued. The application shall remain on file for a minimum of 30 days before the license is issued. The license shall be valid for one year only.

(Code 1985, § 110.21(D))

Sec. 10-212. Going on private residences.

No solicitor, peddler, hawker, itinerant merchant or transient vendor shall go in or on private residences in the city, not having been requested or invited so to do by the owner or occupant thereof, for the purpose of soliciting orders for the sale of, disposing of, or peddling or hawking of goods, wares and merchandise, except for farm produce produced by the seller, and religious, educational and nonprofit groups and organizations.

(Code 1985, § 110.21(A))

Sec. 10-213. Sales on city property prohibited.

No person shall use any part or parcel of city property, or property that is under the jurisdiction or control of the city, as a stand or place from which to sell commodities, goods or produce.

(Code 1985, § 110.21(B))

Sec. 10-214. Sales on private property.

No person shall sell any goods, commodities or produce from any private property, or property over which the city does not have jurisdiction or control, without first having obtained an occupational license under the provisions of this chapter.
